For Outdoor Lovers

Parc d'environnement naturel de Sutton

Got hiking enthusiasts on your list? Give them an annual membership or day passes to the Sutton Natural Environment Park, which boasts over 50 km of hiking trails. That's hours of nature therapy at a low cost!

Cycles Campus Sutton

Shopping for a bike fanatic? Chances are you'll find the perfect idea at Cycles Campus Sutton. Everything to make two-wheel lovers happy whether they ride in summer or winter!

Mont Sutton

With its flexible multi-day passes, Mont Sutton lets you ski 2, 3, 4, or 5 days (consecutively or not) throughout the season and save money while doing it. A perfect gift for snow sports lovers!

Boutique GS Ski Shop

Looking for expert advice from true ski enthusiasts when buying skis for yourself or a loved one? At GS Ski Shop, you'll be greeted by passionate pros. Their specialties: boot fitting, alpine touring, and ski racing.

Boutique Expérience Sutton

Whether they're into mountain biking or alpine skiing, this shop has what it takes to make them happy. You'll find top-quality clothing brands, high-performance gear, and a wide range of accessories. Go ahead—get your loved ones moving this winter!

For Food Lovers

Simon Riel Apiculteur

To add a touch of sweetness to a Christmas stocking, nothing beats Simon Riel's honey candies. Or maybe you'd prefer a jar of honey? You'll have to choose from his many varieties: clover, blackberry, dandelion, buckwheat, wildflower, goldenrod, blueberry...

Chez Matis Traiteur

For anyone who finds meal prep a chore, give take-out dishes from Chez Matis Traiteur: tourtières, quiches, fish or meat dishes, soups. And add a tarte tatin or a French pastry for dessert!

La Rumeur Affamée

A true gourmet institution in the heart of Sutton, this fine grocery store is packed with local delicacies. Choose from ready-made gift boxes or create your own with a mix of spices, condiments, oils, spreads, cheeses, and Québec-made spirits.

La réserve naturelle - Caviste

Take home natural wines or a gift card to enjoy them on-site with a creative, comforting dish. Either option will delight the foodies in your life!

For Fashion Enthusiasts

Ariane Marois - Joaillière

Ariane Marois designs and handcrafts each piece with care, either as a one-of-a-kind creation or in small series. Pendants, rings, earrings, bracelets—her refined, minimalist jewelry is made to be cherished for years.

La Compagnie Robinson

Timeless leather goods that age beautifully? Absolutely. Wallets, belts, bags, camera straps, dog leashes and collars, all handmade with minimalist, durable design.

Boutique Escapade

Shopping for someone inspired by fashion? Stop by Boutique Escapade for a stylish clothing gift, or choose a gift card and let them enjoy the fun of browsing for themselves.

Boutique Le Jasmin

For your mother, sister, partner, daughter, cousin, aunt, or friend, there's a lovely selection of relaxed urban-style women's clothing to discover.

Urbaine des champs

For 15 years, this boutique has been showcasing clothing from over 40 Québec designers along with imported labels chosen for their commitment to sustainable fashion. Think of the Pinacle belt bag by Kazak or the Disco Bike t-shirt by Oöm.

Boutique Nath'Elle

For over 25 years, this women's clothing boutique has been a downtown Sutton staple. Its secret? A diverse and original selection you won't find anywhere else.

Second-Hand Treasures

Friperie On va s'aimer encore

Suzanne Lemay's mission is to help create a fairer, more sustainable world by reusing before buying new. You'll find high-quality second-hand clothing for both men and women in this well-curated thrift shop.

Créations Les Mains Heureuses

At Les Mains Heureuses, denim is paired with quilts and other recycled fabrics to make jackets, bags, mittens and a range of accessories. Each piece is made from reclaimed materials and is one of a kind.

Friperie Mode Vintage

The past is back in style! This charming vintage shop is full of retro-chic finds: 1950s jewelry, 1960s beaded purses, 1970s coats, 1980s suits.

Brocante Chez Marcelle

Hidden in a garage behind Round Top Bagel, this antique shop is filled with treasures carefully selected by Marcelle, the owner. For 40 years, she's been helping customers find the perfect furniture or vintage décor item.

Monde Antiques

For loved ones who appreciate objects with a story, stop by Mondes Antiques. The shop brings together jewelry, toys, frames, decor and small pieces of furniture in antique, retro and mid-century styles.

Maison Bergeron

Searching for a striking art piece or antique? You might just find a gem (and make someone's day) in this eclectic cabinet of curiosities in Sutton.

For those Who have Everything!

Galerie Farfelu Sutton

Shopping for someone who seems to already have everything? A piece of art might be the perfect gift. For local Québec creations, Galerie Farfelu in Sutton is the place to go.

Officinalis Herboristerie

Over 100 loose medicinal plants, herbal teas, tonics, body products, local crafts—so many treasures to gift. The herbalist's top pick is the Territory Kit, featuring Rebelle Cuisine maple syrup, Oneka organic apple cider vinegar, balsam fir tea, and Forêt tonic.

Atelier Bouffe

Specializing in tableware and kitchen essentials, the Atelier Bouffe boutique is the place to find a gift for the people who spend their days at the stove or for your holiday hosts.

Au Coeur des saisons

Part florist, part gift shop, it's one of those places where you'll want to buy everything. If you must choose, how about a crossbody phone bag or a candle from Vancouver Candle Co.'s Great White North collection?

Luloba Céramique

For an activity that's out of the ordinary, give the gift of a pottery wheel class. Participants learn to center and raise the clay, then the team takes care of the glazing and firing. The finished piece is ready to pick up four weeks later.

Vert Partout

A no-fuss boutique filled with fun finds for all ages. Want to make someone smile? Try a decorative poster featuring a witty quote that's sure to get a laugh.

Gifts of Cozy Comfort

Alpagas Sutton

You can't take one of the adorable alpacas home, but you can stock up on products made from their fibers: headbands, scarves, socks, shawls, throws, and plush toys for kids.

Ameoli

Pamper your loved ones with high-quality, natural beauty products. At Ameoli, every skincare recipe—for the face, body, or hair—is crafted with respect for both nature and people.

L'Art des possibles

Soothing teas and creative vibes await in this charming tea shop and art space. Tip: plan a little extra time during your shopping trip to enjoy a relaxing pause here.

L'Échappée Belle

It's a bookstore filled with works about nature and the living world. It's an artisanal chocolate shop featuring Belgian pralines. It's a forest-inspired grocery offering Québec's wild ingredients. And it's also a warm café where time slows down.

Mont Tricot

A haven for knitters in Sutton! The shop is filled with skeins in vibrant colors and varied textures. The owner, Lucinda, recommends slipping a few Sutton Glitz balls of yarn under the tree, made of natural cotton with a hint of sparkle.
